Visit Our Three Progressive Municipalities

Itawamba County is home to three incorporated municipalities. Fulton, the county seat, is located on the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway in the central area of the county. Itawamba County's second largest town is Mantachie. Mantachie is located in the northwestern area of the county. Tremont is located a few miles west of the Alabama state line in the beautiful hill region of eastern Itawamba.

City of Fulton
The City of Fulton, established in 1837, is named for Robert Fulton, the inventor of the steamboat. Fulton is located on the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway and hosts waterway sports such as boating, skiing, canoeing, and fishing. A walking track created to feature beautiful waterway views is also part of the Underground Railroad Bicycle Route inspiring walkers, runners, and cyclists alike. You can enjoy a stay on the waterway by boat at the Midway Marina or by RV and tent camping at the Jamie L. Whitten Campground. If you prefer hotel stays, we have five: Holiday Inn Express, Days Inn, American's Inn, Comfort Inn, and The Sands Motel. For assistance with arranging your stay, you may contact our Itawamba Welcome Center. Fulton is home to unique antique shops, boutiques, and restaurants too. You'll stop on in to shop, unwind, and dine! For more information see our website at fulton.itawambams.com

Mantachie
Welcome to the Town of Mantachie. Our town is located in west Itawamba County. Our vibrant community supports an active lifestyle. Mantachie was chosen a Healthy Hometown by Blue Cross & Blue Shield of Mississippi Foundation in 2017. Our town is bustling with activity from the Itawamba Historical Society, Mantachie Mustang sports teams, Little League, Mantachie Farmer's Market, walking tracks to our beautiful Mantachie Park. There are activities for all ages. Come visit Mantachie and see why our close-knit community is known best for our welcoming spirit. For more information see our website at mantachie.itawambams.com

Tremont
Tremont is the birthplace of the 1st Lady of Country Music Tammy Wynette! Tremont "three mountains" is nestled in the southeastern corner of Itawamba County near the Alabama state line. Rich with history tourists can still enjoy today from the Tammy Wynette Legacy Park, Oakland Normal Institute, Vernon Presley Marker, to Molly Harman Springs. We have a little something for the nature lover to the music connoisseur! Come see why Tremont is the "Golden Ring" of Itawamba County. For more information see our website at tremont.itawambams.com
